2. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

2.1. Trinidad and Tobago 3rd Follow-up Report (“FUR”) published in June 2019 regarding actions taken to address the findings of the Fourth Round Mutual Evaluation Report¹, noted inter alia that the country’s administrative sanctions regime was deficient, as the Supervisory Authorities² (“Authorities”) do not have the power to apply administrative monetary fines (“AMF”) to financial institutions and listed businesses³ (“regulated persons”) for breaches of Anti Money Laundering / Combatting the Financing of Terrorism / Countering Proliferation Financing requirements (collectively “AML” hereinafter).

2.2. Consequently, Trinidad and Tobago is currently rated ‘partially compliant’ with the Financial Action Task Force’s Recommendation 35, which requires countries to apply administrative and civil sanctions for AML breaches, which are effective, proportionate and dissuasive. For the purpose of this policy, ‘proportionate and dissuasive’ means that the AMF when applied will seek to:

- be fair, and take into account past behavior;
- be proportionate to the seriousness of the breach;
- nullify any financial gain or competitive benefit of non-compliance; and
- be sufficient to act as a deterrent to non-compliance.

2.3. This policy outlines the principles for the introduction of an administrative monetary fine (“AMF”) framework for financial institutions and listed businesses to address the deficiency noted in the FUR. It is intended that the introduction of this framework will have a dual purpose to serve:

- as an additional sanction which may be applied by the Authorities in respect of AML breaches in certain circumstances, and
- as a deterrent generally to the wider financial and listed businesses sectors.

2.4. The AMF regulatory framework (“framework”) is to be established under section 57 of the Proceeds of Crime Act, Chap. 11:27, section 42 of the Anti-Terrorism Act, Chap. 12:07 and section 27 of the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago Act, Chap. 72:01.

² Supervisory Authorities are the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago, the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago and the Trinidad and Tobago Securities and Exchange Commission.

³ Persons defined as a ‘financial institution’ in section 2 of the Proceeds of Crime Act, Chap. 11:27 “(POCA)” and persons classified as “listed business” in accordance with a business or profession listed in the First Schedule of the POCA.

The framework will provide the Authorities with the enforcement power to levy an AMF for specified contraventions of AML requirements:-

- 2.5. The framework will also set out the process by which the Authorities can provide a written notice offering the regulated person the opportunity to discharge the liability for the contravention, by paying the applicable AMF and remedying or discontinuing the contravention.
- 2.6. It is not intended that monetary penalties will be levied for isolated AML breaches, generally. Rather, an AMF will be utilized where systemic and egregious contraventions are identified. For the purpose of this policy, ‘systemic and egregious’ means that there are fundamental or significant deficiencies in a financial institution’s or listed business’ AML governance, risk management, systems and controls.
- 2.7. Monetary penalties may be used in conjunction with other enforcement powers and the levying of an AMF does not preclude the use of other regulatory enforcement actions. As such, the decision whether to levy an AMF will be made within the context of each Authority’s supervisory intervention and enforcement policies, giving consideration to any aggravating or mitigating factors which may be present. In certain instances, it may be appropriate to not impose a monetary penalty but instead, require the regulated person to take remedial action to address the breach.
- 2.8. The Authorities will act in a transparent and proportionate manner, when taking enforcement action. This means that the appropriate action will be determined by considering all facts on a case by case basis, including representations made by the regulated person, before imposing sanctions that best reflect the seriousness of the contravention.
- 2.9. This policy is relevant to all persons defined as a ‘financial institution’ in section 2 of the Proceeds of Crime Act, Chap. 11:27 “(POCA)” and persons classified as “listed business” in accordance with a business or profession listed in the First Schedule of the POCA.

3. INTRODUCTION

- 3.1. In January 2015, the Caribbean Financial Action Task Force (CFATF) conducted an on-site mutual evaluation of Trinidad and Tobago in accordance with its Fourth Round procedures, to assess the country's compliance with the Financial Action Task Force's (FATF) 40 Recommendations. The Fourth Round Mutual Evaluation Report⁴ (MER) of Trinidad and Tobago was adopted on November 25, 2015 during the XLII CFATF Plenary and published on June 6, 2016.
- 3.2. Amongst others, the country was rated 'partially compliant' with FATF's Recommendation 35 (R.35). R.35 requires countries to apply administrative and civil sanctions for AML breaches. The country's 3rd Follow-up Report⁵ (FUR) published in June 2019, concluded that whilst criminal sanctions appear to be proportionate and dissuasive, the administrative sanction regime was deficient as the Authorities do not have the power to apply administrative monetary fines (AMF) to financial institutions and listed businesses for AML breaches.
- 3.3. An effective supervisory regime comprises a variety of mechanisms and tools including preventive measures, related sanctions and other remedial actions. Currently, the Authorities have a wide range of dissuasive and proportionate intervention and enforcement tools which include, inter alia, giving written warnings; issuing compliance directions to comply with specific instructions; removing, replacing or restricting the powers of officers, directors, and controlling owners; imposing suspension or withdrawal of the licence; and imposing criminal penalties where applicable.
- 3.4. The Authorities can also require remedial actions to be taken such as agreeing action plans with timelines and requiring regular reports from the financial institution or listed business on the corrective measures it is taking to address infractions.
- 3.5. AMFs are civil monetary penalties levied by a supervisory authority via legislative authority without the commencement of criminal proceedings. The levying of an AMF provides an alternative reprimand which is less costly and less time consuming than criminal proceedings.

4. OBJECTIVE

- 4.1. This policy paper proposes the introduction of a regulatory framework for an AMF regime to address the FATF R.35 deficiency. The introduction of AMFs will enhance existing supervisory powers as an additional mechanism to enforce compliance with AML regulatory requirements by instituting a monetary penalty for breaches of the relevant AML legislation.
- 4.2. An AMF will be utilized where pervasive and/or egregious contraventions are identified. For the purpose of this policy, ‘egregious’ means that there are fundamental deficiencies in people, processes, systems and controls in the AML risk management framework, that pose potential harm to the integrity of the financial institution and/or the financial system.

LEGISLATIVE FRAMEWORK

5.1. The AML legislative framework is comprised of the following key laws:

- a) Proceeds of Crime Act and Regulations, Chap. 11:27 (POCA);
- b) The Anti-Terrorism Act and Regulations, Chap. 12:07 (ATA);
- c) The Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago Act and Regulations, Chap. 72:01 (FIUTTA); and
- d) The Economic Sanctions Act, Chap.81:05 and any Orders made thereunder.

6. SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

6.1. Each supervisory authority will apply AMFs for breaches of AML requirements by regulated persons⁶ licensed or registered under their respective substantive legislation, subject to paragraph 8.3 of this policy in respect of regulated persons who fall under the supervisory remit of two Authorities.

6.2. The AML regulatory framework⁷ will apply to the following regulated persons:

- a) a financial institution licensed under the Financial Institutions Act Chap. 79:09 (FIA);

⁷ A reference to the regulatory framework includes subsidiary legislation made under the relevant statute and any amendment, re-enactment or modification made thereunder.

- b) an insurance company or broker registered under the Insurance Act, Chap. 84:01 (IA) involved in the underwriting and placement of life insurance, other than term life insurance, and other investment related insurance;
- c) a person licensed under the Exchange Control Act Chap. 79:50 (ECA) to operate an exchange bureau;
- d) a person who carries on money or value transfer services, which includes persons registered by the Central Bank to provide payment services pursuant to section 36 (cc) of the Central Bank Act Chap. 79:02 (CBA) and a person licensed by the Central Bank to issue e-money pursuant to the Ministerial Order issued in accordance with section 17 (4) of the FIA;
- e) a person registered under the Securities Act, Chap 83:02 (SA) as a broker-dealer, underwriter or investment adviser;
- f) a person or entity managing a collective investment scheme under the SA;
- g) persons classified as “listed business” in accordance with a business or profession listed in the First Schedule of the POCA;
- h) a building society registered under the Building Societies Act Chap. 33:04;
- i) a society registered under the Co-operative Societies Act Chap. 81:03;
- j) development banks, trust companies, mortgage companies⁸; and
- k) any other person subject to AML obligations as declared by the Minister with responsibility for Finance, to be a financial institution, in accordance with clause (1) of the definition of ‘financial institution’ under Section 2 of the POCA.

7. BASIS OF THE POLICY PROPOSALS

7.1. In developing this Policy, consideration was given to FATF’s R.35 requirement for a range of effective, proportionate and dissuasive sanctions, whether criminal, civil or administrative, for an effective supervisory and enforcement regime. In this regard, ‘effective, proportionate and dissuasive’ means that penalties applied by the Authorities will seek to:

- be fair, and take into account past behavior;
- be proportionate to the seriousness of the breach;
- remove any financial gain or competitive benefit of non-compliance; and
- be sufficient to act as a deterrent to non-compliance.

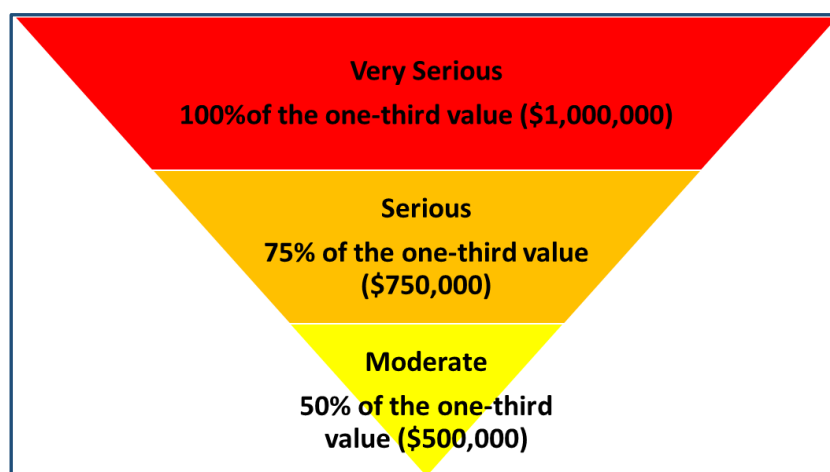

⁸ Pursuant to section 123 of the FIA, the Central Bank may require information from and enquire into or examine the affairs of the Home Mortgage Bank, the Agricultural Development Bank and the Trinidad and Tobago Mortgage Finance Company. Additionally, as the designated AML Supervisory Authority for these institutions, the Central Bank may take regulatory action as prescribed under the Proceeds of Crime Act and its Regulations, Chap.11:27 in respect of AML contraventions or concerns.

- 7.2. Consequently, the penalties referenced in section 57(1) of the POCA, section 42(1) (a) of the ATA and the specific penalties referred to in the regulations made under the FIUTTA, were used as the base for the calculation of the AMF. Based on jurisprudence in Trinidad and Tobago, AMFs may be calculated from one-third of either the penalty on conviction on indictment or the penalty on summary conviction based on the severity of the breach. For the POCA and the ATA, these penalties are $3,000,000 and $500,000, respectively.
- 7.3. Egregious breaches of AML regulatory requirements pertaining to customer due diligence, record-keeping and suspicious activity reporting have been weighted as ‘very serious’. The concomitant FATF Recommendations⁹ are included in the ‘core’ and ‘Big 6’ Recommendations which, if rated poorly after a mutual evaluation, will result in a country being placed in the CFATF’s Enhanced Follow-up process.
- 7.4. The poor ratings may also result in the country being placed into the FATF’s International Co-operation Review Group (“ICRG”) monitoring process, which can result in the country being publicly listed as a jurisdiction with strategic AML deficiencies. In the past, the ICRG listing of Trinidad and Tobago gave rise to adverse consequences, as the country was perceived as ‘high risk’ by international agencies and correspondent banks, leading to disruptions to international trade and cross-border payments.
- 7.5. The proposals contained in this Policy were also informed by a review of the AMF regimes of regional and international jurisdictions which received a ‘largely compliant’ or ‘compliant’ rating for R. 35, following their Fourth Round MER or their Technical Re-Ratings review [Appendix I]. From this review, the jurisdictions with similar regimes to the existing enforcement regime contained in the FIA, were identified as best practice in developing the proposed regulatory framework for financial institutions, giving consideration to the domestic environment.
- 7.6. Commonwealth jurisdictions with an administrative penalty regime for Designated Non-Financial Businesses and Professions (DNFBPs), which received a ‘largely compliant’ or ‘compliant’ rating for R.35 in their Fourth Round MER, were also considered in relation to developing this proposed regulatory framework as it relates to listed businesses.
- 7.7. Having regard to the foregoing, the current indictable penalty ($3,000,000) in the POCA and the ATA will be adopted for calculation of the base penalties for financial institutions. It is proposed that the base penalty of one-third of the indictable penalty ($1,000,000) will be applied in respect of ‘very serious’ breaches, and thereafter, 75% and 50% of the base penalty will be applied to breaches assessed as ‘serious’ and ‘moderate’ respectively. This is illustrated in Figure I.

CALCULATION OF BASE ADMINISTRATIVE MONETARY FINE FOR FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

7.8. For proportionality in levying the AMF, a tiered approach based on asset size is proposed giving consideration to the varying sizes and complexity in business models of financial institutions. This approach is considered appropriate to ensure that the AMF is proportionate to the nature and size of the financial institution and the severity of the breach.

7.9. In this regard, Table I illustrates the proposed quantum of the AMF which will be imposed on financial institutions based on asset size.

TABLE I – AMF BASED ON THE ASSET SIZE OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

AMF BASED ON FINANCIAL INSTITUTION'S ASSET SIZE
MATERIALITY OF THE BREACH	100% OF BASE PENALTY ASSETS > $100M	75% OF BASE PENALTY ASSETS > $50M BUT < OR = $100M	50% OF BASE PENALTY ASSETS > $10M BUT < OR = $50M	25% OF BASE PENALTY ASSETS < OR = $10M
VERY SERIOUS	$1,000,000	$750,000	$500,000	$250,000
SERIOUS	$750,000	$562,500	$375,000	$187,500
MODERATE	$500,000	$375,000	$250,000	$125,000

- 7.10. For listed businesses, a tiered approach based on estimated annual income is proposed to determine the quantum of the applicable penalty, using the one-third value of the penalty on summary conviction ($500,000) as the base figure for calculation. Given the nature of some listed businesses, asset size may not be an appropriate indicator of their financial capacity, and thus may become problematic for a proportionate application of penalties. For example, the assets of an attorney-at-law (listed business) may be limited to only a computer and other small assets, whilst his annual income may be more substantial.
- 7.11. A review of the estimated annual income of the listed businesses currently registered with the FIUTT informs that a calculation of the AMF based on the penalty on indictment as used for financial institutions, would be significantly disproportionate to the nature and size of the listed businesses. The current penalty on summary conviction ($500,000) was therefore applied.
- 7.12. The penalties for breaches of specific regulations¹⁰ made under the FIUTTA which are applicable to financial institutions and listed businesses registered with the FIUTT will remain fixed to ensure proportionality and dissuasiveness.
- 7.13. The proposed Schedules of contraventions and applicable AMF for financial institutions and listed businesses are contained in Schedules I¹¹, II¹² and III¹³ of this Policy.

8. LEGISLATIVE PROPOSALS FOR THE REGULATORY FRAMEWORK FOR ADMINISTRATIVE MONETARY FINES

- 8.1. It is proposed that section 36 of the CBA, section 7 of the SA, and Part IIIA of the FIUTTA, would be amended to grant the Authorities the power to impose an AMF for AML breaches.
- 8.2. Provisions would be made under section 57 of the POCA, section 42 of the ATA, and section 27 of the FIUTTA, to grant the Authorities the power to levy an AMF for contraventions of AML requirements.

¹⁰ Regulations 28(1); 29(1) and 29A(1) of the FIUTTA.

¹¹ Schedule I – AMF for contraventions of the Financial Obligations Regulations, 2010 (as amended)

¹² Schedule II – AMF for contraventions of the Anti-Terrorism Act, Chap.12:07 and the Financial Obligations (Financial of Terrorism) Regulations

¹³ Schedule III – AMF for contraventions of the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago Regulations

- 8.3. In respect of FATF's proportionality and dissuasiveness principle, the summary and indictable penalties in section 57 of the POCA and section 42 of the ATA, will be increased to two (2) million and five (5) million respectively.
- 8.4. To remove any ambiguity concerning a financial institution's requirement to file Quarterly Terrorist Reports to the FIUTT and to ensure that a proportionate and dissuasive AMF is applied:
- a) section 33(3) of the ATA would be amended to direct financial institutions to file their Quarterly Terrorist Reports with the FIUTT, within 7 working days following the end of each calendar quarter; and
 - b) section 33(6) of the ATA would be amended to include a monetary fine in addition to imprisonment for five (5) years for conviction on indictment.
- 8.5. AMFs may be applied to contraventions, subject to the considerations outlined in section 9 of this Policy. The Authorities will consider the specific circumstances in accordance with their respective supervisory intervention and enforcement policies, whether it is appropriate to impose an AMF and pursue other enforcement action in order to remedy the contravention.
- 8.6. The POCA, FIUTTA and ATA would be amended to include the process to be used by the Authorities, for the levying of the AMF as set out in the Schedules. This process would be similar to the process set out in section 122 of the FIA regarding the ability of the Authorities to issue a Notice, offering the regulated person the opportunity to discharge the liability for the contravention, by paying the applicable administrative monetary fine and remedying or discontinuing the breach. This process would provide that:
- i. where the Authorities have reasonable cause to believe that a regulated person has committed a contravention referred to in the respective Schedules, the Authorities may issue a Notice to the regulated person requiring it to discontinue or remedy the contravention and pay the AMF referred to in the respective Schedules, within a timeframe specified by the relevant Authority.
 - ii. where the Notice is issued to the regulated person it shall be required to pay the AMF within twenty-one (21) days from the day the Notice was served, and the commission of the contravention must be discontinued or remedied within the timeframe specified by the Authority issuing the Notice;
 - iii. if the regulated person fails to pay the AMF and/or continues to contravene the regulations referred to in the Notice after the period stipulated in the Notice, the regulated person would be liable on summary conviction for the criminal penalties stated in section 57 of the POCA, section 42 of the ATA, and section 27(4) of the FIUTTA;

iv. the Notice should:

- specify the alleged contravention referred to in the Schedule;
- provide particulars of the contravention to inform the nature of what is alleged;
- indicate that the AMF must be paid within twenty-one (21) days of the issuance of the Notice;
- indicate the timeframe within which the contravention must be discontinued or remedied;
- state the applicable AMF as indicated in the Schedule; and
- specify that the said AMF is to be paid to the Comptroller of Accounts and state the address of the Comptroller of Accounts.

v. the Authorities will issue the Notice in the form prescribed in the regulations and will determine the arrangements with respect to the payment of the AMF to the Comptroller of Accounts;

8.7. The Authorities responsible for imposing the AMF shall be:

- i. For entities licensed or registered¹⁴ by the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago and in respect of the TTMF, HMB and the ADB, the Central Bank¹⁵;
- ii. For entities registered by the Trinidad and Tobago Securities and Exchange Commission, the Board of Commissioners or its delegate;
- iii. For entities registered by the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago, the Director or his delegate.

9. PRINCIPLES UNDERLYING THE DETERMINATION OF WHETHER TO IMPOSE AN ADMINISTRATIVE MONETARY FINE

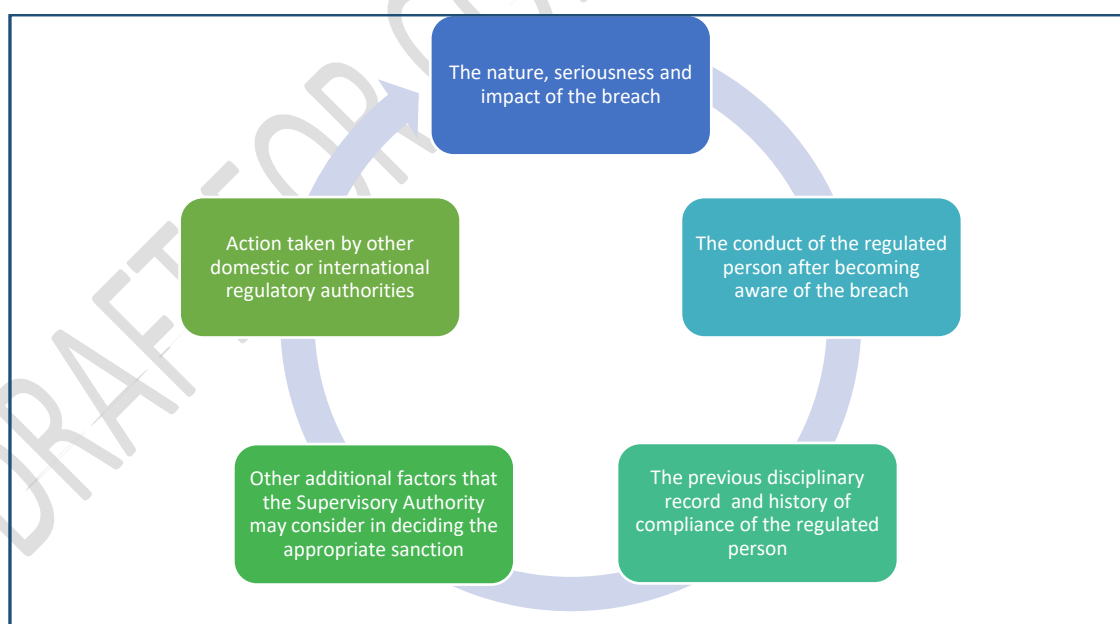

9.1. The Authorities recognise the potential financial impact of monetary penalties, as well as the importance of having suitably robust internal procedures for the administration of the AMF framework, in order to take regulatory actions that are transparent and fair.

¹⁴ In respect of Payment Service Providers and E-Money Issuers, the Authority will be the FIUTT for AML contraventions.

¹⁵ In the case of the Central Bank the person issuing the Notice will be Governor or his delegate or the Inspector or his delegate as appropriate.

- 9.2. In this regard, in accordance with their respective supervisory intervention and enforcement policies/ processes, the Authorities will consider all enforcement measures available in deciding the appropriate sanction, as well as any representation made by the regulated person before making a final decision on whether to impose an AMF. The levying of an AMF for AML contraventions does not preclude the taking of other regulatory actions. As such, monetary penalties may be used in conjunction with other enforcement powers where appropriate.
- 9.3. Where a regulated person is regulated by more than one supervisory authority and the Authorities are contemplating enforcement actions with respect to the same contravention(s), the Authorities shall collaborate on the enforcement action to be taken to determine whether one penalty or separate penalties should be applied.
- 9.4. The Authorities shall consider any one or more of the factors illustrated in Figure: II, in determining whether to levy the AMF. A guidance document will be issued by the respective Authority, to clarify the administrative process to be followed when an AMF is to be levied.

- 9.5. The criteria set out below are not exhaustive, and the supervisory authority may consider other factors which while not listed, may be relevant to a particular case.

a) The nature and seriousness of the breach:

- the number and extent of the contravention(s) identified;
- the degree of responsibility, inadvertence, intent or negligence leading to the contravention;
- the potential or actual reputational damage to the financial institution or listed business;
- any financial or other damage or loss or harm done or caused by the contravention, including, for example, to:
 - ✚ the regulated person's customers, investors, policyholders or shareholders;
 - ✚ the safety and soundness of the financial sector; or
 - ✚ the performance of the supervisory authority's functions
- the degree of difficulty in detecting the contravention;
- whether there are a number of minor issues, which individually may not justify disciplinary action, but when taken collectively will warrant the imposition of sanctions;
- whether the contravention(s) reveals/reveal serious or systemic weaknesses of the management systems or internal controls in the regulated person's business conduct; and
- whether it may be more appropriate for another regulator, domestic or international, to consider the matter.

b) The conduct of the regulated person after becoming aware of the breach(es):

- whether and how quickly the regulated person brought the contravention to the supervisory authority's attention;
- whether the regulated person took appropriate steps within a reasonable timeframe to remedy the contravention or prevent its reoccurrence;
- the degree of co-operation of the regulated person with the supervisory authority during the examination, the investigation and/or enquiry; and
- whether there was evidence of intent by the regulated person to conceal the contravention or mislead the supervisory authority.

c) The previous disciplinary record and compliance history of the regulated person:

- the regulated person's history of compliance, in the five (5) years before the contravention, with domestic AML requirements and in the case of financial groups, with similar AML laws in other jurisdictions where they operate;
- whether the supervisory authority has previously sanctioned the regulated person or required the regulated person to take remedial action,

- the extent to which the regulated person implemented the agreed action plan within a reasonable timeframe and/or allocated sufficient resources to remedy the contravention or prevent future occurrences; and
- the general compliance history of the regulated person including adverse findings, if any.

d) Other additional factors:

- the measures or precautions that a reasonable person, acting prudently and exercising due diligence, would have taken to prevent the contravention;
- whether or not the contravention was due to:
 - ✚ reasonable reliance on information given to the regulated person by a third party; or
 - ✚ a cause beyond the regulated person's control, including, for example, a third party's act or default or error.
- whether, before or after the contravention, there was a change to the regulated person's business or affairs that affects or may affect the consequences of the breach for the regulated person, including, for example:
 - ✚ the regulated person's ability to pay an AMF; or
 - ✚ if the supervisory authority has previously levied an administrative penalty on the regulated person in similar circumstances to the contravention the amount of said penalty.

e) Action taken by another domestic or international regulatory authority:

- Some contravention (s) may potentially result in enforcement actions being considered by other domestic or overseas regulatory authorities. Where, in permissible circumstances, other regulatory authorities are contemplating disciplinary actions against a regulated person, with respect to the same contravention (s), the supervisory authority will consider:
 - ✚ whether the other regulatory authority's action would be adequate to address its concerns; or
 - ✚ if it will need to impose separate sanctions.

9.6. The list of factors stated above is not exhaustive and each AML contravention will be assessed on a case-by-case basis. The supervisory authority will treat each contravention on its own merits and assess the facts to decide on an outcome that is fair and proportionate based on the nature of the contravention and mitigating circumstances. Mitigating factors may lead the supervisory authority to not levy an AMF when deciding how to proceed with enforcement.

- 9.7. The Authorities may also levy an AMF in conjunction with other regulatory and supervisory powers as necessary and appropriate, in order to meet regulatory and supervisory objectives. The appropriateness of imposing separate regulatory or supervisory action will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.
